Mariposa de Noche

THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK · OUR FAVOURITE PLACES ON IBIZA

We came to the island in 1999 and still enjoy it whenever we come here. Many people ask which beaches we like, where to eat, where to wander. This is the part of the island we know and love.

Un abrazo, Jordi & Joanne · Zara & Belén

Where to swim

Cala Conta · 15 MIN

Beautiful beach, great snorkelling, Sunset Ashram for a drink at sundown.

Cala d'Hort & Es Vedrà · 25 MIN

A quiet bay looking out at the magical rock of Es Vedrà.

Cala Vedella · 15 MIN

Small, pretty, clear water. Open year-round.

Benirràs · 30 MIN

Sundays, hippies drumming at sundown. Fantastic sunset.

Long lunches, beach tables

Tropicana, Cala Jondal · 20 MIN

White beds, music, beach massages, the best cava de sangría.

Sunset Ashram, Cala Conta · 15 MIN

A drink over the super-blue sea at sunset.

Es Xarcu · 20 MIN

Small, excellent fish restaurant. The road is bumpy.

Sa Caleta · 15 MIN
Excellent fish on a red-rock beach. Open all year.

La Paloma, Sant Llorenç · 25 MIN
It's the lush garden that makes this place.

Aubergine, San Miguel · 25 MIN
Garden lunch, soft music.

Wander a little further

Es Vedrà · 25 MIN
A mysterious rock said to hold a powerful magnetic field.

Dalt Vila · 20 MIN
The UNESCO old town within 16th-century walls.

Ses Salines · 25 MIN
2000 years of salt fields; magical at sunset, sometimes flamingos.

Las Dalias hippy market · 35 MIN
The best market, open at night in summer.

Massage & yoga with Estella · 5 MIN
Our neighbour and friend, a stone's throw from Mariposa.

Boat to Formentera · FERRY FROM IBIZA TOWN
Rent a bike, lunch at Juan y Andrea, sunset boat back.

Rent your own little boat · 10 MIN TO THE HARBOUR
No licence needed. Drift to a quiet cove, swim, picnic on board.

Winter Sundays · AROUND THE ISLAND
A small beer in the sun, music to dance to. The island's quiet locals' moment.
